INDEX

Volume XI: October, 1931—June, 1932

ADAMS, JOHN, Elimination of the Teacher, 280-283
Administration of Janitorial Service, H. C. Wegner, 17-24
Are "Bad" Children Really Bad? W. R. Davis, 461-467
Arithmetic, A Classroom Experiment in Teaching Elementary, A. S. Bush, 284-289
Arithmetic, The Present Impasse in, G. M. Wilson, 65-72
Arithmetic Activity Course, The Learning of Fundamentals in an, Irene S. Hizer and Henry Harap, 536-539

Backward Child and the Activity Program, The, Jennie Harmel Cohen, 550-552
BEGGS, BERENICE, Poetry to Interest Boys, 338-343
BENFORD, BESS L., A Motor Trip over the Lincoln Highway, 428-430
BISHOP, MERRILL, Supervision in a Junior High School, 484-490
BITTNER, MARGARET A., A Questionnaire Study of Three Important School Problems, 545-550
BONAR, HUGH S., Segregation of "Ability Groups" and Achievement on the First Grade Level, 531-536
BORGESON, GERTRUDE M., Nutrition Education in the Schools, 166-171
BROWNING, MARY, BONNIE C. HOWARD, and GERTRUDE MODEROW, Supervisory Reading Program, 32-38
BUCKALEW, HARRY L., The Fine Art of Supervision, 129-132
BUSH, A. S., A Classroom Experiment in Teaching Elementary Arithmetic, 284-289

CARR, JOHN W., The Work of the Teacher in Planning the Curriculum, 274-280
CARROLL, ROBERT P., Factors that Make a Subject or Course Difficult, 491-494
CARSTENS, LILLIAN, see MOORE, BERNICE S.
Character Education, The History of, Laird V. Glasscock, 351-358
CLEARING HOUSE, THE:
Water—A Unit of Work in the Sixth Grade, Adele M. Outcalt, 46-47; Introduction to Curriculum for High School in Agricultural-University City, Charles W. Conrad, 48-49; Original Melodies, Violet Hammond, 104-105; Good Health Cafeteria, Margaret Duiven, 105-111; The Use of Supervisory Bulletins in Los Angeles, Robert H. Lane, 111-114; A Plea for the Intelligent Teaching of Biography, Amanda M. Ellis, 172-173; Christmas Assembly—A Correlation of the Fine Arts, Bernice S. Moore and Lillian Carstens, 173-174; Active Interest in a One-Heroine Plot in Second Grade, Lucile Hazard, 174-176; A Museum Collected by a Fifth Grade, Laura DuCharme, 176-178; The "Questionnaire" as a Supervisory Device, Franklin M. Underwood, 231-236; Those Who Can and Know They Can, Bess B. Lane, 236-237; A Supervisory Bulletin on Arithmetic, C. I. Fleming, 299-302; Capitalizing Talk, Cecile B. Hall, 302-303; The Coöperative Group Plan in a Modified Form, I. V. Diamond, 365-367; A Project in Geography, Effie B. Jones, 368-370; Contract Teaching in a Junior High School, Virginia Fuller, 425-426; Objective and Method, J. M. Hughes, 426-428; A Motor Trip over the Lincoln Highway, Bess L. Benford, 428-430; Is the Preliminary Test Useful in Instruction, A. W. Hurd, 495-496; A Pet Show Is a Valuable First Grade Experience, Elaine F. Rorer, 496-499; Live Programs for Assembly Exercises in Junior High Schools, Frank M. Rich, Josephine M. Mulklen, and Ethel M. Tompkins, 556-560
CLEM, ORLIE M., Fundamental Elements in Junior High School Instruction, 521-530
COHEN, JENNIE HARMEL, The Backward Child and the Activity Program, 550-552
COMPTON, MIRIAM A., see HOLMES, ADELINE S.
Conflicting Theories of Education, John T. Wahlquist, 133-136
CONRAD, CHARLES W., Introduction to Curriculum for High School in Agricultural-University City, 48-49
Convincing Doubting Thomas, Adeline S. Holmes and Miriam A. Compton, 344-350
Coöperative Group Plan, An Experiment with the, Earl P. Watkin, 25-31
Course of Study, Making a Handwriting, Henry Harap, 202-209
COX, PHILIP W. L., Drift, Mastery, and the Zeitgeist, 193-196; II, 263-265; III, 326-329; IV, 390-396; V, 477-484
Creative Education, L. Thomas Hopkins, 1-8
Creative Writing with Especial Reference to Poetry, Methods of Teaching, Gertrude B. Wyman, 295-298
Critics' Comments to Student Teachers, Homer L. Humke and Warren Fauquher, 330-333
Curriculum, The Work of the Teacher in Planning the, John W. Carr, Jr., 274-280
Curriculum Based on the Seven Objectives, A, Belle L. Dickson, 210-212
Curriculum Making in a Child-Centered School, L. Thomas Hopkins, 410-414
Curriculum Making for the "Very Slow" Child, Christine P. Ingram, 513-520

DAVIS, W. R., Are "Bad" Children Really Bad? 461-467
DIAMOND, I. V., The Coöperative Group Plan in a Modified Form, 365-367
DICKSON, BELLE L., A Curriculum Based on the Seven Objectives, 210-212
Direct Attack in Teaching, W. C. Ruediger, 270-273
Drift, Mastery, and the Zeitgeist, Philip W. L. Cox, 193-196; II, 263-265; III, 326-329; IV, 390-396; V, 477-484
DUCHARME, LAURA, A Museum Collected by a Fifth Grade, 176-178
DUIVEN, MARGARET, Good Health Cafeteria, 105-111
Determinate and the Indeterminate Statement —in Written Examinations, The Relative Classroom Discussion Value of the, Charles C. Weidemann, 334-337

EDITORIAL COMMENT AND REPORT:
The Essential Task; Better Selection of Teachers; Statistics Have Human Interest, 50-55; Standards for the Preparation of Elementary School Principals in New York; Life's Little Stupidities, 115-120; Character Building—I, Its Foundation in Political Philosophy; Scientific Method in Education, 179-184; Progress in Progressive Education; Character Building—II, The Opportunity of the Public School; Some Fruits of Coöperative Supervision, 238-246; Character Building—III, Guidance; Visit Hawaii; A Demonstration Normal College, 304-309; Issues in Supervision; Character Building—IV, Pupils' Organizations, 371-376; The Method of Democracy; Character Building—V, The Week-Day Church School, 431-436; Reading and Citizenship, 500-503; Summer School Teaching, 561
Educational Exploitation of Errors, Benjamin C. Gruenberg, 9-16
Elimination of the Teacher, John Adams, 280-283
ELLIS, AMANDA M., A Plea for the Intelligent Teaching of Biography, 172-173
Evaluating the Recitation, Desirable Characteristics to Look for in, F. E. Henzlik, 226-230
EVERETT, MABEL L., Shall We Teach Fables or Truth? 140-142
Extension Teaching as an Agency in Supervision, B. R. Showalter, 156-165

Factors that Make a Subject or Course Difficult, Robert P. Carroll, 491-494
FAUQUHER, WARREN, see HUMKE, HOMER L.
FLEMING, C. I., A Supervisory Bulletin on Arithmetic, 299-302
FLINN, VEE, Teacher Rating by Pupils, 290-294
FULLER, FRANCES O., Occupations—A Path-Finding Course, 396-404
FULLER, VIRGINIA, Contract Teaching in a Junior High School, 425-426

Geography, Are Pictures an Effective Aid in the Teaching of, Mildred Meador, 97-103
George Washington in the Course of Study, C. W. Stone, 468-476
GIBBARD, MINNIE A., A Handbook for the Teachers of an Elementary School, 359-364
GLASSCOCK, LAIRD V., The History of Character Education, 351-358
GOODYKOONTZ, BESS, One Phase of Supervision in Progressive Schools, 404-409
GRUENBERG, BENJAMIN, Educational Exploitation of Errors, 9-16
GUILER, W. S., Remediation of College Freshmen in Capitalization, 540-544

HALL, CECILE B., Capitalizing Talk, 302-303
HAMMOND, VIOLET, Original Melodies, 104-105
Handbook for the Teachers of an Elementary School, A, Minnie A. Gibbard, 359-364
HARAP, HENRY, Making a Handwriting Course of Study, 202-209; see also HIZER, IRENE S.
HAZARD, LUCILE, Active Interest in a One-Heroine Plot in Second Grade, 174-176
HEFFERNAN, HELEN, Supervisory Practices in California, 81-86
HENZLIK, F. E., Desirable Characteristics to Look for in Evaluating the Recitation, 226-230
History Tests, Teaching Values of the Renfrow Sixth Grade, Stella Woliver, 553-555
HIZER, IRENE S., and HENRY HARAP, The Learning of Fundamentals in an Arithmetic Activity Course, 536-539
HOLMES, ADELINE S., and MIRIAM A. COMPTON, Convincing Doubting Thomas, 344-350
HOPKINS, L. THOMAS, Creative Education, 1-8; Curriculum Making in a Child-Centered School, 410-414
How to Make More Effective Use of the "Telling" Method, Margaret C. Jones, 221-225
HOWARD, BONNIE C., see BROWNING, MARY
HUGHES, J. M., Objective and Method, 426-428
HUGHES, W. HARDIN, Progressive Education and the Need for Research, 197-201
HUMKE, HOMER L., and WARREN FAUQUHER, Critics' Comments to Student Teachers, 330-333
HURD, A. W., Is the Preliminary Test Useful in Instruction? 495-496

INGRAM, CHRISTINE P., Curriculum Making for the "Very Slow" Child, 513-520

Janitorial Service, Administration of, H. C. Wegner, 17-24
JONES, EFFIE B., A Project in Geography, 368-370
JONES, MARGARET C., How to Make More Effective Use of the "Telling" Method, 221-225

Junior High School Instruction, Fundamental Elements in, Orlie M. Clem, 521-530

KANDEL, I. L., Teaching—A Trade or a Profession? 385-390

LANE, BESS B., Those Who Can and Know They Can, 236-237
LANE, ROBERT H., The Use of Supervisory Bulletins in Los Angeles, 111-114

MEADOR, MILDRED, Are Pictures an Effective Aid in the Teaching of Geography? 97-103
MILLER, JOSEPH, The Retarded Child and the Special Class, 266-270
MODEROW, GERTRUDE, see BROWNING, MARY
MOFFITT, J. C., see SMITH, CHARLES A.
MOORE, BERNICE S., and LILLIAN CARSTENS, Christmas Assembly—A Correlation of the Fine Arts, 173-174
MORRISON, J. CAYCE, Next Steps in Improving Elementary Education, 257-262; Character Building, 179, 240, 304, 371, 431
Music, Is the Cart Before the Horse in School, Frank S. Salisbury, 90-96

Next Steps in Improving Elementary Education, J. Cayce Morrison, 257-262
NORRIS, ORLAND O., Some Major Postulates for a Philosophy of Education, 449-461
Nutrition Education in the Schools, Gertrude M. Borgeson, 166-171
NYSTROM, ELLEN C., The Functions of Special Supervision in the Minneapolis Public Schools, 143-149

Occupations—A Path-Finding Course, Frances O. Fuller, 396-404
OUTCALT, ADELE M., Water—A Unit of Work in the Sixth Grade, 46-47

Philosophy of Education, Some Major Postulates for a, Orland O. Norris, 449-461
Poetry to Interest Boys, Berenice Beggs, 338-343
PORTER, MARTHA PECK, Supervisory Problems Met in Changing from the Traditional to the New Elementary School, 415-419
Principal's Challenge, The, Joy W. Scudder, 73-75
Progressive Education and the Need for Research, W. Hardin Hughes, 197-201
Provo Plan of School Adjustment, The, Charles A. Smith and J. C. Moffitt, 321-326

Questionnaire Study of Three Important School Problems, A, Margaret A. Bittner, 545-550

READER'S GUIDE, THE: 56-63; 121-128; 185-192; 247-256; 310-319; 377-384; 437-448; 504-511; 566-572
Recreation in a Fourth Grade, A Plan for Stimulating Productive, Clara Woltring, 39-45
Remediation of College Freshmen in Capitalization, W. S. Guiler, 540-544
Retarded Child and the Special Class, The, Joseph Miller, 266-270
RICH, FRANK M., JOSEPHINE M. MULKLEN, and ETHEL M. TOMPKINS, Live Programs for Assembly Exercises in Junior High Schools, 556-560
RORER, ELAINE F., A Pet Show Is a Valuable First Grade Experience, 496-499
RUEDIGER, W. C., Direct Attack in Teaching, 270-273
Rural Schools, A State Program for the Improvement of Teaching in the, Anna Swenson, 87-89
Rural Supervision, Objectives and Practices in New York's Program of, Ray P. Snyder, 76-80

SALISBURY, FRANK S., Is the Cart Before the Horse in School Music? 90-96
School Marks, A Painless Plan for Assigning, Milton Wittler, 213-217
SCUDDER, JOY W., The Principal's Challenge, 73-75
Segregation of "Ability Groups" and Achievement on the First Grade Level, Hugh S. Bonar, 531-536
Shall We Teach Fables or Truth? Mabel L. Everett, 140-142
SHAW, LENA A., Supervisory Activities Involved in Integrating Handwriting Instruction, 149-152
SHOWALTER, B. R., Extension Teaching as an Agency in Supervision, 156-165
SMITH, CHARLES A., and J. C. MOFFITT, The Provo Plan of School Adjustment, 321-326
SNYDER, RAY P., Objectives and Practices in New York's Program of Rural Supervision, 76-80
Special Education in the Baltimore Schools During the Year 1929-1930, Progress in the Field of, J. E. W. Wallin, 137-140
STEELE, ROXANA A., The Supervision of Practice Teaching for the New School, 419-424
STONE, C. W., George Washington in the Course of Study, 468-476
Supervision in a Junior High School, Merrill Bishop, 484-490
Supervision in Progressive Schools, One Phase of, Bess Goodykoontz, 404-409
Supervision in the Minneapolis Public Schools, The Functions of Special, Ellen C. Nystrom, 143-149
Supervision of Practice Teaching for the New School, The, Roxana A. Steele, 419-424
Supervision, The Fine Art of, Harry L. Buckalew, 129-132

Supervisor, The Beginning Teacher and the, Kate V. Wofford, 153-155
Supervisory Activities Involved in Integrating Handwriting Instruction, Lena A. Shaw, 149-152
Supervisory Needs of Rural Teachers in the Social Studies, I. D. Weeks, 218-220
Supervisory Practices in California, Helen Heffernan, 81-86
Supervisory Problems Met in Changing from the Traditional to the New Elementary School, Martha Peck Porter, 415-419
Supervisory Reading Program, Mary Browning, Bonnie C. Howard, and Gertrude Moderow, 32-38
SWENSON, ANNA, A State Program for the Improvement of Teaching in the Rural Schools, 87-89

Teacher Rating by Pupils, Vee Flinn, 290-294
Teaching—A Trade or a Profession? I. L. Kandel, 385-390

UNDERWOOD, FRANKLIN M., The "Questionnaire" as a Supervisory Device, 231-236

WAHLQUIST, JOHN T., Conflicting Theories of Education, 133-136
WALLIN, J. E. W., Progress in the Field of Special Education in the Baltimore Schools During the Year 1929-1930, 137-140
WATKIN, EARL P., An Experiment with the Co-operative Group Plan, 25-31
WEEKS, I. D., Supervisory Needs of Rural Teachers in the Social Studies, 218-220
WEGNER, H. C., Administration of Janitorial Service, 17-24
WEIDEMANN, CHARLES C., The Relative Classroom Discussion Value of the Determinate and Indeterminate Statement—in Written Examinations, 334-337
WILSON, G. M., The Present Impasse in Arithmetic, 65-72
WITTLER, MILTON, A Painless Plan for Assigning School Marks, 213-217
WOFFORD, KATE V., The Beginning Teacher and the Supervisor, 153-155
WOLIVER, STELLA, Teaching Values of the Renfrow Sixth Grade History Tests, 553-555
WOLTRING, CLARA, A Plan for Stimulating Productive Recreation in a Fourth Grade, 39-45
WYMAN, GERTRUDE B., Methods of Teaching Creative Writing with Especial Reference to Poetry, 295-298